

Director's Meeting

Monday, 12 May 1952

PRESENT: General Smith, Messrs. Dulles, Wisner, Wolf, Becker, Hedden, []

General Smith:

a. Referred to [] memorandum and stated he desired to see him to discuss his future plans.

c. Stated that [] would be here on the 21st and he desired to hold a small dinner party for him. In this connection he also stated that Mr. Pace planned a luncheon for General Ridgway on the 22d and it would be necessary to cancel the PSB luncheon on that date.

Mr. Dulles:

a. Briefly reported on the meeting he attended at Princeton this weekend and noted that (1) a good discussion had been held on RFE; (2) a paper had been drawn setting forth U. S. policies and objectives toward the satellites; (3) Chip Bohlen had undertaken to show this paper to Secretary Acheson, and he (Mr. Dulles) had a copy for the Director.

b. Raised the question of the [] project and noted that (1) [] had indicated he could only

b. Noted that Congressman Richards, Chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, had complained that he was "not up" on what the U. S. was doing in the psychological warfare field. After some discussion the Director agreed to see Congressman Richards and briefly outline our activities in this field.

c. Referred to [REDACTED] recent cable concerning additional personnel for "[REDACTED]", and, after some discussion, the Director asked Mr. Becker to place this on the agenda at the IAC meeting for 15 May. (NOTE: No reply to [REDACTED] cable will be made until after this matter is discussed at the above meeting.)
